

CyberSale

Grain Management Software

We provide:

A) Software: CyberSale Feed Mill and Grain Management System (can be installed on up to 10 computers)

B) Database Server: This includes the hardware: (a Dell PowerEdge Server) and the software (Linux OS, MySQL database server), delivered, set up and configured.

C) Web Server Software: CyberSale comes with extended Work Order System which enables the user to fill work orders, enter lot numbers, specify pulling, mixing, bagging, trucking and bin information via computers and/ or wireless mobile devices connected to the local Intranet. We provide all the software and setup to make this happen.

D) Transitional Support: Personalized help with initial setup and data conversion.

E) Training: Onsite training sessions for you and your staff.

F) Software Support: Free version upgrades for 1 year

G) Tech Support: Free tech support for 1 year

H) Remote Backup Service: Automated nightly backups of data to remote server.

Cost:

The software, hardware, training and other services listed above is available for the one-time cost $12000 to $15000. After 12 months, users wishing to continue with free version upgrades, tech support and remote data backups can continue these services for an annual fee of $2400.